Meet E.ON Inhouse Consulting at an exciting case workshop in London and energize your career!

Do you want to pursue a career in consulting and make a difference in the energy sector? Then join us at our "PV & Battery" case workshop on the LSE campus in London on October 20th, 2017 from 9am - 1pm. Take this opportunity to learn more about E.ON's current business and advise the E.ON board on a go-to-market strategy for an innovative product. Take the chance to gain insights on your career opportunities during an informal get-together after the workshop.

Sounds interesting? Grab this unique opportunity now and sign up for our workshop. Apply by sending your CV to energize-your-career-econ@eon.com by October 11th, 2017.

We are looking forward to meeting you in London.

Your energy shapes the future.
