

Environment and Ethics Officer

What does the Environment & Ethics Officer do?

- Leads the Union on delivering students' general and political priorities related to environment and ethics.
- To set and carry out annual objectives
- To attend 121s with relevant LSESU staff once a month, and remain in regular contact through email/phone between meetings
- To attend Executive meetings and the weekly UGMs, or send official apologies if this is not possible
- To communicate and collaborate with the Sabbatical Officers where necessary
- To communicate your work to students both in person and online

You should nominate yourself if you...

- Want to help shape the future of LSE and LSESU
- Want to improve support and advice for students regarding environment and ethics.
- Are interested in developing your communication, organisational, event planning, teamwork and leadership skills
- Want to gain experience working in the third sector

How to nominate yourself

- Go to www.lsesu.com/democracy/elections and fill out a nomination form.
- The deadline for nominations is available on this page. We cannot accept nominations after this time.
- If you have any questions or if you would like more information about these roles, please email Engagement Co-ordinator Rhodri Roberts at r.roberts3@lse.ac.uk.
