

LGBT+ Officer

What does the LGBT+ Officer do?

- Sets and carries out annual objectives
- Attends 121s with relevant LSESU staff once a month, and remain in regular contact through email/phone between meetings
- Attends Executive meetings and the weekly UGMs, or send official apologies if this is not possible
- Communicates and collaborates with the Sabbatical Officers where necessary
- Communicates their work to students both in person and online.

You should nominate yourself if ...

- You want to help shape the future of LSE and LSESU
- You're interested in improving support and advice for students regarding LGBT+ students' liberation.
- You want to develop your communication, organisational, event planning, teamwork and leadership skills
- You're interested in gaining experience working in the third sector

You must self-define as LGBT+ to run for this position. If you have any questions about this, please email su.engagement@lse.ac.uk.

How to nominate yourself

- Go to www.lsesu.com/democracy/elections and fill out a nomination form.
- The deadline for nominations is available on this page. We cannot accept nominations after this time.
- If you have any questions or if you would like more information about these roles, please email Engagement Co-ordinator Rhodri Roberts at r.roberts3@lse.ac.uk.
