Complaints Register 2018

02/03/2018 A complaint was received regarding the content of the unofficial publication 'The Bever' and the resulting RON Campaign. The Returning Officer investigated and issued a sanction to the content producers. The sanction required the creators of the publication remove the content and issue an apology to those candidates mentioned.

03/03/2018 A complaint was received alleging a candidate's video contained unofficial endorsements and was released before endorsements were confirmed. After investigation by the Returning Officer, a sanction was given to Naveed Kabir's campaign. The sanction required Naveed to remove his video, and re-upload it without the unofficial endorsements.

03/03/2018 A complaint was received alleging the admin of an LSE Facebook Group had unofficially endorsed a candidate's campaign. After investigation by the Returning Officer, a sanction was given to Naveed Kabir's campaign. The sanction required the campaign ask the Facebook admin to remove their post and make another post that links to the manifesto(s) of the other candidate(s) in the race.

03/05/2018 A complaint was received alleging support for a candidate was posted in a closed Facebook group. After investigation by the Returning Officer, a sanction was given to Naveed Kabir's campaign. The sanction required the campaign to invite all candidates to join the LSE Boxing Facebook group, or remove the post from the closed group. A sanction of a six-hour online campaign ban was also given to redress the fairness of the race.

03/06/2018 A complaint was received alleging support for a candidate was posted in a closed Facebook group. After investigation by the Returning Officer, a sanction was given to Megan Beddoe's campaign. The sanction required the campaign to invite all candidates to join the ISOC Netball Facebook group, or remove the post from the closed group.

03/06/2018 This complaint alleges that a campaigner had been actively supporting and campaigning for your campaign while also working in their existing position as a paid Officer in the Students' Union. After investigating this complaint fully a sanction was given by the Returning Officer to Megan Beddoe's campaign. The sanction required a 4.5 hour physical campaign ban.
