

General Course President

The essentials

Number of positions up for election	1
Can any student run for this position?	No- you have to be a General Course student to run.
Is this position paid?	No
Time commitment	Flexible (to be decided by the winning candidate)

What does a General Course President do?

The main function of the General Course President is simple; to represent General Course students during their short time here at LSE. In this role you will be in a unique position to shape the year of the whole General Course Cohort. You will work closely with both the Dean and the Student Recruitment Office to organize events throughout the year and to ensure that every General Course student has a great time at the LSE.

Finally, you will also offer crucial help in the organization of the General Course Ball in Summer Term, the most memorable moment for many General Course students of not just their time at LSE but their whole London experience.

You should nominate yourself if...

- You want to represent your fellow General Course students and ensure that their time at LSE is as positive as possible.
- You want to help organise important events such as the General Course Ball, gaining valuable organisational experience in the process.
- You want a flexible role that you can fit around your studies and other commitments.
- You want to develop your leadership skills, and improve your resume.

How to nominate yourself

- Go to www.lsesu.com/elections and fill out a nomination form.
- Nominations open at 10am on Monday 10th October and close at 5pm Monday 17th October. Nominations submitted after this point will not be accepted.
- Students can vote online between 10am on Wednesday 26th October and 7pm on Thursday 27th October.
- If you have any questions or if you would like more information about these roles please email Engagement Co-ordinator Frankie Quinn at F.Quinn@lse.ac.uk.