

Member of the Trustee Board
(2017 – 2018)
Part-time position

Purpose

To represent the views of all students to the Trustee Board

The Trustee Board assumes ultimate legal and financial responsibility for LSESU. It comprises elected students and five Sabbatical Officers, as well as external members with relevant expertise.

What you will do

- Ensure that everything LSESU does benefits students
- Ensure that LSESU remains in good financial shape, including approving the annual budget
- Ensure that LSESU does not break any laws or regulations
- Interpret the Constitution, Articles and Byelaws
- Attend all Trustee Board meetings
- Read relevant reports and papers prior to meetings

Requirements

- You cannot have been convicted of an offence involving deception or dishonesty (unless the conviction is spent)
- You cannot have a history of bankruptcy

Benefits

- Help shape the future of LSE and LSESU
- Develop your communication, organisational and teamwork skills
- Looks great on your CV
- Meet other students
- Additional tailored training sessions to develop your skills
- If you're thinking of running for a Part-time Officer or Sabbatical Officer position in the future, this is a great way to try out campaigning and to convince students you can represent their views

Pay and conditions

- Voluntary, expenses will be covered
- You will be required to attend training
