RAFI AHMED

YOU matter. WE matter. DEMOCRACY matters.

As a member of the Democracy Committee, I will:

Ensure that elections of all societies run in an efficient and fair manner

Review motions set for the Union General Meeting to see if they are in accordance to the Students' Union's bylaws and governing documents

Ensure that the voting processes are accessible to all members

Attend all Union General Meetings and team meetings

Sustain trust in the democratic processes of the LSE Students' Union.

Why should YOU Vote for me? :

As Community and Welfare Officer of LSE Passfield Hall, I strived to ensure inclusivity and accessibility of all residents in hall events

As a Student-Staff Liaison Committee member, I prioritized fair and equal representation of all students in my programme.

As a member of two Executive Committees in high school, I was actively involved in the democratic and efficient functioning of societies

ACADEMIC NETWORK CHAIR

CREATIVE NETWORK CHAIR

PERCY FAGENT

I would not still be at this university if it wasn't for learning there is a small but passionate community at LSE who care about the arts.

I want to make sure anyone creatively minded is able to feel like they can belong and thrive here. There is too much talent here that doesn't get seen, and it's time to bring it to the front and centre.

Lets awaken more people to the talent that quietly thrives and create more support between creative societies.

Maintain Student Fairs & get them bigger and better.

Creative Union Membership which offers discounted tickets to Creative Events.

Board in the SU which lists Creative Events every week.

Create an email chain which sends round a weekly event list to Creative Union Members.

Creative Union Social Events & regular meetings between Presidents.

... more to come!

ATHLETICS UNION (AU) EXECUTIVE

BRONWEN JACKSON- TURNER

Vote Bron J-T, your MVP!

Sport has always been massive for me and this hasn't changed at LSE. If anything, it has only become more important given that my uni life revolves around the AU. I fully understand how being involved in the AU and having the opportunity to play sport weekly keeps us happy and sane. Most of my friendships started playing rugby at Berry's, chatting (or shouting after 8pm) over a pint at Tuns or working at the gym - not to forget Zoo...

After two years, I know how good the AU can be however I also now have clear ideas of the ways in which we can make it so much better. As a part of your AU exec I will be able to:

Increase interactions between clubs.

Ensure women find strength and purpose through sport.

Continue to improve events since they are often the highlights of the year!

MADELEINE CROSBY WILSHER

Better Year, better AU, Vote Madeleine

I'm Madeleine, I am currently part of boxing as well as pole fitness. As my first year at LSE comes to an end, I've realised how much the AU has positively impacted my experience here so far, and that even includes embarrassment of date night!

I want other students to continue to have as much fun as I have and I believe that me being apart of the AU executive can help to make this happen.

I plan to do this through:

- efficient funding for all AU teams to cover costs of equipment, travel, events and coaches/trainers.
- increased funding for AU social events
- run more inclusivity and diversity programmes following the success of this years 'This LSE Girl Can' week
- improve communication with the SU
- more charity/fundraising sports events
- increased competitiveness (to put imperial to shame)

Vote for me and you wont be dissapointed! Xxx

STEPHANIE ZAHLAN DE CAYETTI

Vote Steph, winners do it better

I'm part of snow and boxing society and I'm running for AU exec this year

I feel like, from first year the AU shapes everyone's uni experience and I want to take advantage of my third year to pursue that

As event officers of different societies I already know how to run events with LSE and the LSESU and think that, on top of my motivation, I have the organisational skills to improve the AU in terms of :

Inclusivity :

Increase mental health support in sports

Increase respect within sports (gender, sexual preferences, disabilities)

Sports :

Try to make LSE a more "sporty" uni by adding more training sessions for those who want to compete in their respective sport

Help all teams financially

Increase involvement

Events

Try to make every event as inclusive and accessible as possible

Organise new fundraising events

Happy to answer any questions !

Vote for me I won't disappoint (I never do hehe)

Steph

CHARITY, CAMPAIGNING & POLITICAL NETWORK CHAIR

ANNA SEIFU

SEIFU the no1 choice for YOU!

1. To improve COLLABORATION by:

Holding regular coffee mornings for committee members and SU representatives

Organising forums, debates and events to diversify collaborations across the LSE community.

2. Strengthening links with the LOCAL COMMUNITY by:

Building on the recently passed homelessness initiative and ensuring that all societies get involved in making these events successful

Creating more collaborations with organisations and universities to widen LSE's impact e.g. with local food banks.

3. Improving COMMUNICATION and political engagement by:

Strengthening online interaction through polls, quizzes and competitions

Making societies and events more visible across campus e.g. running training sessions to improve communication skills

Ensuring that the SU structures are transparent and accountable so that students feel empowered to enact change

4. And importantly, to CELEBRATE the amazing work being done by students and societies e.g. running a social media series recognising achievements!

ADITYA AGARWAL

Be heard, not herded!

Who?

Student stitched together by the cultural fabric of 5 different countries and 9 academic institutions before becoming part of the undergraduates, studying Mathematics & Economics. Few impacts: Vice-President of Maths Dept. Social Committee led to the materialisation of the first-ever and successfully executed, Maths Ball alongside committing to mentorship and welfare of LSE community through the SSC.

Targets:

Fine-tune the trustee board meetings to YOUR desires and demands

Direct regular meetings with you as the sole priority, from ideas to institutional changes, about you, for you

Sustaining the integrity of the LSESU - Transparency and Regulation

Keeping you updated on our progress and posted on measures that are implemented
Everything is to be short and to-the-point - No lengthy surveys sent en masse

Finance and Foresight - Investing in YOU

Cooperating together for the best annual budget possible in prioritising your experience and opening more doors to your ideas

ADITYA RAJAN

Trust Adi for Trustee

Hi everyone!

I'm a British Indian undergraduate here in my second year studying BSc Financial Maths and Stats.

My main objective as a member of the Board of Trustees would be to ensure that every student's views are represented and that decisions involving the fate of the SU are in favour of all of its members.

I have a depth of experience with societies within the SU. Having been an active member of the Students Union through my committee roles in the Alternative Investments Society, Energy Society and the Grimshaw Club has shown me how much the SU and its societies make an incredibly large, positive impact on the quality of each student's university experience.

I hope you put your trust in me to act as your trustee!

Adi

TAEYANG JUNG

LSESU's bank invests in Arms/Fossil-fuels

Hello, my name is Taeyang, which means Sun in Korean.

LSESU currently uses NatWest that invests in arms, fossil fuels and other industries neglecting human/animal rights: Natwest is currently bottom-ranked in most of the online ethical-banking tables (check <https://thegoodshoppingguide.com/subject/ethical-banks-building-societies%e2%80%8d%e2%80%8d%e2%80%8d/>)

If I am elected, I will end it:

By initialising a campaign motion and meetings with the Trustees & Democracy Committee to switch to Triodos Bank, which takes the environment, human/animal rights into its investment consideration.

My background:

- Elected Chair of KCLSU Ethics & Sustainability Committee for 2 years (2017~2019): Phasing-out palm-oil campaign
- Student Member of Fairtrade and Sustainable Food Steering Group, KCL (2018)
- Student Member of Socially Responsible Investment Review Committee, KCL (2017)
- Active Environmental/Animal Rights/LGBTQ+ Activist
