

Ethnic Minority Mentoring Scheme 2026-27 Mentee Code of Conduct

This code of conduct applies to all current LSE students who are accepted as Mentees to the Ethnic Minority Mentoring Scheme. When students apply to the Scheme, they agree to abide by this code, and acting outside of it could result in removal from the Scheme.

As a Mentee, you agree to adhere to the following criteria whilst participating in the 2026-27 Ethnic Minority Mentoring Scheme:

- To participate in the Scheme from November 2026- July 2027.
- To read the Mentee Pack, sent to you with your matching information, in advance of making contact with your Mentor.
- To contact your Mentor within two weeks of receiving your matching information.
- To be in contact with your Mentor at least once a month.
- To complete feedback surveys at the beginning, middle and end of the Scheme.
- To abide by LSE's Ethics Code.
- To conduct yourself in a reasonable and responsible manner of mutual respect and understanding at all times.
- To conduct yourself in a manner that shall not offend others and not use foul and abusive language, either orally, in writing, or by expression.
- To treat all Scheme participants and staff with dignity and respect.
- To ensure that all communications with your Mentor are appropriate and do not breach any LSE or LSESU procedures.
- To comply with the complaints procedure for either the Students' Union or LSE's Alumni Engagement Team if necessary.
- To contact su.mentoring@lse.ac.uk, or use the reporting forms found on the Ethnic Minority Mentoring Scheme webpage if you have any issues or complaints, or experience a breach of this code of conduct.
- To not engage in any behaviour which is deemed an act of discrimination, bullying or harassment.
- To not act in any way that could foreseeably cause harm to yourself or anyone else.

If you have any questions about this code of conduct, please contact su.mentoring@lse.ac.uk.
